sNOWsh

sNOWsh is a unique vision of the future, bringing up to date information to worldwide clients to allow the purchase of products and services anywhere, anytime...

sNOWsh makes it easy for the public to find your independent holiday properties all over the world, available right NOW, in just a few clicks

sNOWsh

Relax - you're taken care of. Let sNOWsh carry you into the future of the internet

As we prepare to set sail into the next generation of search engine technology and aim to return power to the independent property market, we invite you to become an exclusive member of the sNOWsh network and advertise with us absolutely free!

The sNOWsh network brings you a new way to market and advertise your products to a global audience. Our aim is to ensure an exemplary service to both you and your customers, and to give both consumers and clients access to a unique, real time search engine with its ability to make accommodation enquiries.

With the launch of the new sNOWsh site we are reaching out to expand and strengthen our network, and offering a 12 month trial of our Gold Membership package to selected clients.

See and use the full range of the sNOWsh hosted package for this limited period, and explore the full scope of what sNOWsh can do to raise the profile of your business.

At the end of your trial period, we will contact you for feedback and to discuss future membership options.

Real time search technology to keep up to date with current availability - all at the click of a button.
